Dear Mr. McNamara:

I would like to say thank you for the quality jobs you completed for us in 2006. Once we gave you a project, you responded in a timely fashion. The entire project was handled in a professional manner from your sales and office staff down to your on-site crew. More importantly the quality of your product and service was outstanding. As you know the time spent correcting and addressing deficient work is both costly and counter productive.

Looking forward to working with you and your company in 2007.

Sincerely,
